Will Wage Most Aggressive Drive in History to Elect Cox and Roosevelt

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 30.—Sensational Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, chairman of the speakers' bureau of the Democratic National Committee, announced tonight that "the most aggressive campaign in the history of American politics" would be conducted in behalf of Governor Cox and Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Democratic presidential and vice-presidential nominees.

"Not a hamlet in disputed States," said Senator Harrison, "would be overlooked in this determined effort to bring home to the people of the country the sterling qualities, the broad statesmanship and constructive ability of the Democratic standard bearer."

"Governor Cox and Mr. Roosevelt will lead the great galaxy of speakers, who will take to the hustings immediately after the speeches of acceptance of the candidates have been made."

"The Democratic nominees both believe in going direct to the people with their appeals for support. They have no sympathy with 'front porch' campaigns, but will submit their causes themselves to the public for judgment."

DEAL FOR SEVEN PINES LINE IS CONSUMMATED

Richmond Business Men Purchase Railway and Will Develop Property.

PRICE PAID SAID TO BE $100,000

Communities, Alarmed at Threatened Withdrawal of Trolley System, Form Stock Company and Acquire Holdings.

Oliver J. Sands, president of the American National Bank and head of the new Richmond-Fairfield Railway, announced last night that contract for the purchase of the Seven Pines electric line and the village at Seven Pines has been executed. The company will take over the property technically today and take actual possession about August 1.

Citizens living along the line are financially interested in the new company, which was formed under direction of Mr. Sands and the Fairfield Business Men's Association. It is composed of commuters and business men of Richmond.

Purchase of the line was practically forced upon the citizens by the government's refusal to sell the property without selling the village, a group of houses, and a number, constructed during the war by the government at Seven Pines for the housing of workers, the citizens of the locality were compelled to purchase this property also.

Although not authentic, price paid for the property is said to be $100,000.

The government provided sewerage and drainage and the houses are of first-class construction. The company will lay out parks and the property will be offered to the public as soon as buyers can be found.

Early next week directors of the new railway will hold a meeting, the first since acquisition of the property.

OIL BURNING ON SEA CAUSED BELIEF THAT TANKER WAS LOST

Mystery of Supposed Explosion Off Jersey Coast Is Cleared Up.

(By Associated Press.)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 30.—Arrival here tonight of the fishing schooner Mackintosh solved the mystery of the "burning tanker," supposed to have gone down with all hands off Avalon Wednesday.

Captain George Painter, of the Mackintosh, explained that fishing off Avalon was seriously hampered by masses of oil on the surface, the oil having been discharged from the tanker Cabrille, which had gone aground. The engineer of the Mackintosh, hearing the complaints of the fishermen, oilled up a large bundle of waste, set it afire and tossed it into the floating oil. The fire ran from the bundle to the floating oil, giving the appearance of a series of explosions. The Mackintosh, which carries an engine for calm weather, was obliged to flee from the fire, and when the oil had burned itself out there was no trace of anything on the sea for the searchers.

RAILWAY UNIONS REPORT JUMP IN MEMBERSHIP

Brotherhood Officials Attribute It to Better Pay Obtained Under New Law.

(By Associated Press.)

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 30.—Although several objectionable aspects of the recent wage award by the Railroad Labor Board in Chicago was discussed by the heads of the four big railroad brotherhoods, further discussion was postponed until a meeting to be held here in two weeks.

It was announced during the convention by W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, that the Brotherhood organization is increasing at the rate of 100 to 125 per cent. The other three other brotherhoods also report increase in membership, but not so large as that in the trainmen. The officials attribute it to the better wages that are now being paid as a result of the recently announced new wage scale.

THOUSANDS CHEER GOVERNOR COX ON HOME-COMING DAY

Dayton Turns Out En Masse in Celebration for Nominee.

INVITES FRIENDS TO VISIT HIM AT WHITE HOUSE

12,000 Marchers in Parade Storm Reviewing Stand and Demand Speech.

DAYTON, OHIO, July 30.—Belief that he would be elected President was expressed by Governor Cox today in an address at the "homecoming" celebration here over his nomination by the Democratic party.

After he had stood two hours under a burning sun, reviewing a parade of civic, fraternal, industrial and other organizations, variously estimated to contain between 5,000 and 12,000 marchers, crowds stormed the reviewing stand and insisted upon a brief address from the guest of honor.

Thanking his audience "for the testimonial from the men, women and children 'with whom he had lived for twenty years, Governor Cox said:

"I just said to a gentleman from Washington that it would appear to be reflection on one's judgment to desire to leave Dayton and live in any other place. Yet, somehow, I have a feeling that I am going to reside in the house which you yourselves own. As the future tenant of those premises, I promise to take good care of it."

Forced in Jail Building.

To another crowd of admirers who almost crushed the Governor and Mrs. Cox as they left the reviewing stand and forced them to take shelter in the county jail building, Governor Cox said, jokingly:

"I invite you all to come to see me in Washington."

The Governor's brief addresses were not scheduled among the day's events. The Governor left his trail's end library to view the parade in the midst of completion of his address for August 1 accepting the Democratic nomination. The address, he said, would go surely to the printer tomorrow for advance circulation to newspapers tomorrow night.

The parade today was the crowning event of the nonpolitical demonstration by the Governor's home folks.

"It was 'Jimmy' Cox day in Dayton for the thousands who packed the parade route, released by the half-holiday declared generally to hail their citizen first honored with a presidential nomination.

Cheers for 'Jimmy'.

"Hello, Jimmie!" was the salutation shouted at the Governor by hundreds of the paraders. "Three cheers for Jimmy!" and "Hi, Jimmie!" were also heard in the White House. "I'll see you in the White House," were other greetings.

The Governor, waving a soggy handkerchief and applauding each group, responded in kind.

"Hello, Buck!" and "Hello there, Pete!" and "Hello, Ike!" and "Howdy!"

URGES ADOPTION OF OPEN SHOP IN INDUSTRIAL FIELD

Membership of U. S. Chamber of Commerce Adopts New Platform.

FAVORS MAKING UNIONS RESPONSIBLE TO OTHERS

Takes Position That Strikes in Public Utilities' Operation Should Be Prohibited.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, July 30.—By an overwhelming referendum vote, the membership of the United States Chamber of Commerce today adopted a platform on industrial relations, which, among other things, declares for the right of "open shop" operations in industry and for making labor organizations the same as organizations of employers, legally responsible "to others for their conduct and that of their agents."

Answering two allied propositions submitted at the same time, the members took a position that strikes in public utility operation should be forbidden by law, and that tribunals should be set up with power to fix wages and working conditions for employees of utilities. The result of both votes were made public today by the chamber.

The industrial relations platform, which was submitted to the referendum of the constituent bodies of the chamber in twelve sections, upon each of which a separate vote was cast, was drawn up after the close of President Wilson's industrial conference last fall.

Leading provisions of this platform include declarations that limitation of commodity output by either employer or employee, when done to create an artificial scarcity, constitutes an injury to society; that "adequate means" should be provided for adjustment of industrial relations and disputes; that employer and employee have a mutual interest in the successful conduct and full development of their particular industry, and recognition of which co-operation upon which constitutes the true basis of sound industrial relations; that municipal, State and national governments have the right to be heard as to their occupation and its requirements, but no right to enter "combination to prevent or impair the operation of government," and that "no men possess the equal right to associate voluntarily for the accomplishment of lawful purposes by lawful means."

Most of the separate platform propositions were accepted by votes of nearly 1,700 in favor to two or three against. The highest negative vote was cast against a section which said that after collective bargaining had been established and employers and employees dealt through representatives in any plant, it would be considered proper by either party to ask that "these representatives shall not be chosen by or controlled by any outside group or interest."

Against this forty-five votes were cast.

Mine Workers' Chief Moves Promptly to Enforce Demand of President Wilson

(By Associated Press.)

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., July 30.—In compliance with the wishes of President Wilson, John I. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, will issue a mandatory order instructing all miners now on strike in Indiana and Illinois to immediately return to work, so as to permit the normal operation of the mines, it was announced at miners' national headquarters here tonight.

This statement, issued after a conference had reported favorably on the President's telegram, follows:

"I am profoundly impressed by the President's telegram. The fairness of his statement must be apparent to every one with respect for constituted authority or the least regard for the public welfare. The suggestions of the President will be immediately carried out by every right-thinking and loyal member of the United Mine Workers of America and will be considered as a stinging rebuke to men of the type of Frank Farrington, who has deliberately and maliciously sought means to disregard their contract obligations to the detriment of themselves and the inconvenience of the nation."

"Public exhortation of such leaders cannot be too severe. Up to this time the Illinois coal operators have not requested this office to enforce the validity of the wage agreement in that State. I intend, however, in compliance with the wishes of the President, to immediately issue a mandatory order instructing and directing all miners now on strike in Illinois and Indiana to immediately return to work so as to permit the normal operations of the mines. Compliance with this order by the mine workers will pave the way for the calling of a wage conference, now requested by the President for the consideration of inequalities in the agreement."
